

Commissioner's Weekly Wrap Up

DCS Communications Office

This Week In Central Office January 30, 2004

- On Tuesday, January 27, DCS held a Legislative “meet and greet” at the State Capitol Building. This event provided an opportunity for members and staff of the 103rd General Assembly to meet and get to know the commissioner. This successful event had a tremendous turnout and was greatly appreciated by all who attended!

Later that afternoon, Commissioner Miller made a 30-minute presentation to members of the House Children and Family Affairs Committee.

Please see attached copy of talking points.

- On Friday, January 30, Commissioner Miller received a standing ovation for her motivating speech to the 300+ members of the Children's Caucus; sponsored by the Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth and the Tennessee General Assembly Select Committee on Children and Youth.

Legislative News

Legislative Reminders:

You may now hear and/or view Commissioner Miller's full January 14 presentation to the Tennessee House of Representatives by visiting the DCS homepage: www.state.tn.us/youth. Scroll to the bottom of the page to access the links.

Note: Computers using dial-up Internet connections should use the audio link, as the video link will take much longer to upload.

The Week Ahead

Monday, February 2

- Commissioner Miller will present brief remarks to the Fiscal Review Committee in Legislative Plaza.
- Governor Bredesen will present his State of the State address to the public and members of Tennessee General Assembly in the House Chambers at 6:00 p.m. CST.

*Many local TV stations have signed on to carry the live address:
Check your local listings.*

Wednesday, February 4

➤ Listen up Memphis!

Commissioner Miller will make her Tennessee radio debut on news-talk radio WREC 600AM this Wednesday at 8:00 a.m.

Listen and call one of the numbers below to voice your support!

535-WREC or 1-800-474-9732

END